

COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS!

Advent is a season of expectation—we're eagerly waiting for Christmas day and Jesus' birth. In other words, Advent is a countdown to Christmas!

This Advent Countdown paper chain will help your family count down to Christmas. These simple, super-doable Advent activities will brighten your family's Christmas celebration and help you unwrap merry, bright, and meaningful moments together. It includes Bible verses, questions, prayer prompts, and impromptu ways to spark joy and celebrate Jesus!

❄️ Week 1 Theme: Hope ❄️ Week 2 Theme: Peace ❄️ Week 3 Theme: Joy ❄️ Week 4 Theme: Love

It's easy! Simply cut the strips of paper along the dotted lines. Form strip number 1 into a circle (with the words on the outside) and staple or tape it securely. Then loop strip number 2 through the first circle to link them together. Continue looping until you've made a paper chain with 26 circles.

Hang your Advent Countdown paper chain in your home. (Make sure strip number 1 is at the top!) You could put your Advent Countdown paper chain near the kitchen table, on the Christmas tree, or in the hallway near bedrooms. Each day, take turns disconnecting the bottom loop, then read and do or talk about what it says! If you miss a day, no problem! Simply skip ahead or read and do several at one time.

P.S. Advent officially starts on Sunday, November 30. If you begin on that first Sunday of Advent, you'll use all 26 paper strips.
