Let's Hang

Ask your adult if you can ask a friend over to play this week. If you can, choose a friend who helps you make wise choices and helps you be a better person. While at your playdate, thank your friend for being a good friend you can trust!

LOOK for friends who help you be wise.

I Can Be Wise

W.....

I.....

S.....

E.....

With your adult's help, come up with an acrostic for the word, wise. Work on creating words or sentences that help you remember some of the traits of a wise person.

ASK God to help you be wise.

DAY

Walk With the Wise

This week's verse talks about walking with the wise. Read Proverbs 13:20. Talk with your adult about what a wise person would do and about what an unwise person would do in their life. Talk through ways that you can surround yourself with wise people.

KNOW that having wise people in your life will also help you be wise.

DAY

The Wisest One

When we pray, it is like hanging out with God, the Wisest One. Spend some time with Jesus, and ask God to surround you with wise people. You can pray the prayer below or pray one in your own words.

~~~~~
 "Dear God, thank You for the wise people You have put in my life. Please continue to bring wise people into my life. Help me to see wisdom in others and learn from them like I learn from You. Help me to also be a wise friend to others.
 ~~~~~

THANK God for being wise and giving you wise friends.

Hang out with wise people.
