PERSONAL & GROUP QUESTIONS:

1) Faith That Speaks

Hebrews 11:4 says Abel's faith still speaks. Who is someone that is gone that has left a legacy of faith in your life?

Like Abel, no one in the Bible knew that what they were doing at the time would be recorded for future generations. How does this address the temptation to think that what we do is insignificant and does not matter?

2) Stepping Out in Courage

Like Abraham, God calls us into the unknown. What is one area in your life where He is asking you to step out in faith? How much courage do you have when it comes to sharing your faith in Jesus?

3) Eternal Perspective

Hebrews 11:13 shows the faithful lived with eternity in view. How does an eternal perspective change the way you make decisions?

4) Investing in the Next Generation

How are you helping others grow in faith? Who could you influence or mentor in a way that leaves a lasting impact?

5) Christ as the Center of Legacy

Why is it important that our legacy points to Jesus rather than our own achievements?

When people think of your life, what do you hope they see? How does your current lifestyle, priorities, and choices reflect a Christ-centered legacy?
