CHRISTIAN COUNTY FISCAL COURT

29th Day of November, 2022

The Fiscal Court in and for Christian County met for a Special Called Meeting at 8:30 a.m. at the Christian County Courthouse and the following proceedings were had. Present and presiding was Esquire Mark Cansler. The following lady and gentlemen, Justices in Commission, were present:

Darrell Gustafson	Phillip Peterson
Mark Wells	Jerry Gilliam
Magaline Ferguson	Terry Bowman
Rich Liebe

Also present were John Soyars County Attorney and Mike Kem County Clerk.

PRAYER AND PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Esquire Liebe offered the invocation. Esquire Mark Cansler then led the Pledge of Allegiance.

COMMISSION & BOARD REPORTS:

Esquire Ferguson reminded court members of upcoming events throughout our community.

CITIZENS PARTICIPATION:

Lawyer Todd Osterloh spoke on behalf of Oriden requesting that court members decrease the setback requirements set forth in the ordinance and clarify the provision options.

Megan Stahl, representing Oriden shared the positive elements she believes a solar farm would bring to the community.

Wayne Hunt presented a Kentucky agricultural graph showing the economic impact agriculture has on our community and state.

Pat Morris asked court members to consider both sides before voting on the Ordinance. Renting his land to a Solar Farm would benefit not only himself but also generations to come.

Heather Cook thanked magistrates for their hard work and asked them to please pass the Ordinance. She presented a map showing the negative impact the solar farm would have on her property.
