

Sacred Heart Parish, Bordon

In the Gospel this weekend we will hear Jesus tell us about what will happen when He comes again.

The Second Coming of the Lord (Parousia, Apocalypse, Armageddon) is what we are waiting for.

“We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess Your Resurrection, UNTIL YOU COME AGAIN’.

That's our mission. That's our purpose and we can very easily forget it if we're not careful.

The weeks of Advent is a time for us to remember our mission and our purpose and to free ourselves from anything that distracts us from our mission.

Today, on this feast of Christ the King, as we pray ‘adveniat regnum tuum’ we pray for the coming of the Kingdom, Jesus's return, His Second coming. We pray that when the Lord does return, He will find us faithfully working in His Vineyard, producing (not sour grapes) but fruit that will last.

Parish Mission Statement:

“We are here to make Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament better known, loved, honoured, worshiped and adored. All of our efforts in this parish will be geared towards helping every individual to discover the Lord waiting for them to approach Him in the tabernacle”.

Adult Formation

sacredheartbordon.co.uk

Tuesday evenings are given over to Adult formation.

The homily during Mass is in an extended form (looking more closely at the previous Sunday's Gospel) and then after Mass there is a formation session aimed at exploring the fundamental elements of our Catholic faith.

Opposite is an overview of the topics that we will be covering.

EVERYONE is welcome to attend as much or as little as they like.

The session after Mass begins at 7:45pm and ends at 8:30pm.

Even if you cannot make a weekly commitment, come along when you can!

Nativity Rehearsals

From this Sunday a practice will take place after the 10am Mass EVERY SUNDAY lasting 30mins.

First Sunday of Advent

Sunday 3rd December: It's important that we begin this time together, as a parish, in prayer. So, we will celebrate the official Evening Prayer of the Church (called Vespers) on Sunday 3rd December at 5pm, followed by (non-alcoholic!) mulled wine and mince pies. Please do come along!

Red Missio Boxes

If you have a Red Missio box, please return it for counting in the next two weeks.

Congratulations Nola!

Nola was baptised here last weekend. Please keep her in your prayers and her parents and Godparents too, that they may be the best examples to her in practicing our faith.

Christmas Mass times

Unusually, this year the 4th Sunday of Advent falls on Christmas Eve. This means we have the usual Sunday Masses plus the Christmas Masses. The times are at the top of this page.

Failing to prepare is preparing to fail!

Advent is a sacred season in the church's year. A time, like Lent, when we live differently.

Now is the time to begin to think about what you will do this Advent to keep the season solemn and holy.

What will you do? There will be the usual parish activities taking place to help you decide!

Holy Mass during Advent

Advent, like Lent is a penitential time in the Church's year.

Advent is a time of denying the self so that we can make room for the Lord.

In these weeks of Advent we are all the more determined to put God first, to focus on Him and to free ourselves from the usual distractions of our busy lives.

The Liturgy has some differences too:

No Flowers in Church:

We fast from flowers and decorations, having only the Advent wreath.

No Gloria:

During penitential times in the Church, we do not pray the Gloria.

Violet:

The Liturgical colour is violet.

Rose vestments:

Just like in Lent, we use the Rose-coloured Vestments on the Third Sunday of Advent.
