

Month of the Faithful Departed

Time is running out!

As the Church's Year comes to an end, our Readings at Mass focus us on the moment when time will end.

Time will end, finally, when Jesus Comes Again and that Second Coming is our focus for the whole of Advent.

We spend those weeks leading up to Christmas using the Lord's First Coming to make sure we are ready for His Second Coming.

This Sunday is the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, next week is the Feast of Christ the King and then the following Sunday will be the First of Advent.

What are you going to do this Advent to prepare your heart and soul? How will you grow in virtue and leave vice behind?

Advent is known as 'little Lent' it's a time of penance and self-denial. Now is the time to decide what you will do this Advent..... time is running out!

Family learning from the Catechism:

During Advent our focus is on the End of Time known as the Parousia, Armageddon, Apocalypse or the Second Coming. Each week we will look here at what the Catechism Says about the Lord's Return:

1042 At the end of time, the Kingdom of God will come in its fullness. After the universal judgment, the righteous will reign for ever with Christ, glorified in body and soul. The universe itself will be renewed:

The Church . . . will receive her perfection only in the glory of heaven, when will come the time of the renewal of all things. At that time, together with the human race, the universe itself, which is so closely related to man and which attains its destiny through him, will be perfectly re-established in Christ. ⁶³¹

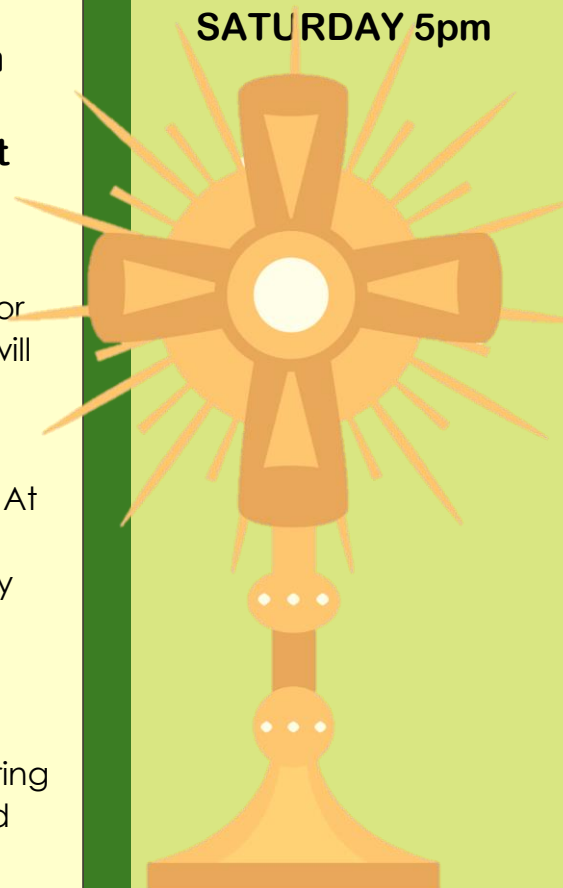

1043 Sacred Scripture calls this mysterious renewal, which will transform humanity and the world, "new heavens and a new earth." ⁶³² It will be the definitive realization of God's plan to bring under a single head "all things in [Christ], things in heaven and things on earth." ⁶³³
