

Knowledge becomes belief and belief becomes faith

Today we hear the familiar Gospel of the 'unrighteous judge'.

He was considered 'unrighteous' because he 'neither feared God nor respected man' and of course this is code for: not loving God above all things or his neighbour as himself! In other words, he was not keeping the Commandments.

Because the Judge was 'unrighteous' he was not able to deliver 'justice'.

'Righteousness' and 'justice' are closely connected.

The Catechism deals with this connection in paragraphs 1987-1995 and those paragraphs are well worth spending some time looking at privately.

But this Judge had a bad attitude, he was not fulfilling his vocation, he was not being the person God made him to be.

As we continue to look at our own attitudes, let's identify, in particular, those attitudes that make us 'unrighteous'.

Raymond Burke RIP

Ray sadly died, suddenly and unexpectedly, last Saturday.

We are all still in shock at his sudden passing. A team of parishioners did their best to help Ray; the recently installed defibrillator was used, but unfortunately, despite everyone's best efforts Ray sadly died.

The grief and sense of loss we all share is still raw, but our faith tells us that death is not the end and we look forward to the day when we are reunited in God's Heavenly Kingdom.

Ray didn't suffer. He left this world fortified and strengthened by the Sacrament's - in God's Grace. We remember too the words of the Lord 'Blessed is the servant whom the Master finds at His employment' and Ray was working for the Lord when the Lord called him.

Our prayers and thoughts are with Peggy, Ray's Mother and his brother Sean.

Each November we renew what is called the 'November Mass List' and those enrolled on the list are prayed for at every Sunday Mass and Holy Day of Obligation.

Family learning from the Catechism:

We have been looking at the relationship between knowing, believing and faith these past few weeks. Faith, in a particular way has been featuring in the Gospel. Here is what the Catechism has to say about Faith:

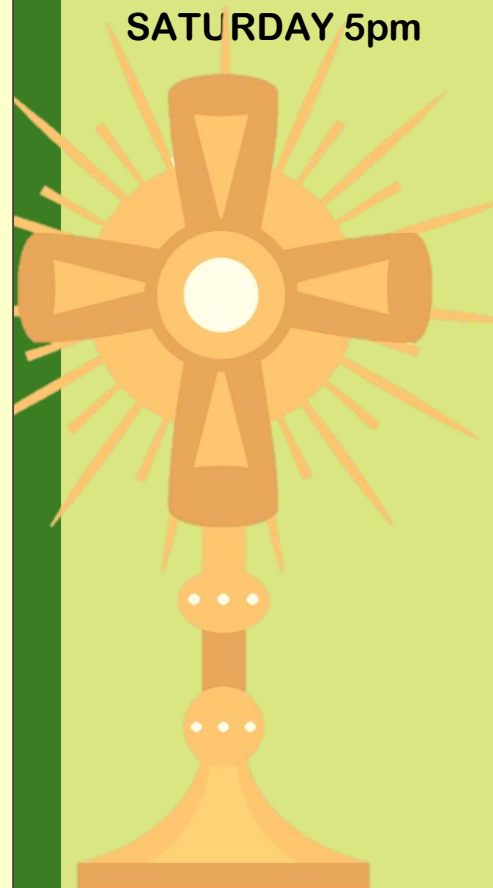

158 "Faith seeks understanding": it is intrinsic to faith that a believer desires to know better the One in whom he has put his faith, and to understand better what He has revealed; a more penetrating knowledge will in turn call forth a greater faith, increasingly set afire by love. the grace of faith opens "the eyes of your hearts" to a lively understanding of the contents of Revelation: that is, of the totality of God's plan and the mysteries of faith, of their connection with each other and with Christ, the centre of the revealed mystery. "The same Holy Spirit constantly perfects faith by his gifts, so that Revelation may be more and more profoundly understood." In the words of St. Augustine, "I believe, in order to understand; and I understand, the better to believe."
