

Righteousness

Last weekend we heard about the 'unrighteous Judge' and this week we hear: 'There were some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt...' But what does 'righteous' mean?

We shorten the word usually to 'right' it is doing the right thing and by doing the right thing we are justified or we act in a 'just' way.

'Righteousness' and 'justice' are closely connected.

Those we meet in the Gospel this weekend are entitled, they see themselves as being righteous and therefore justified, but they are misguided, their entitlement blinds them from seeing things the way God sees them.

To be righteous, to act justly is always according to God's standards and His Will; it is by doing the Will of God that we do 'good' for God alone is good.

We continue to pray to be freed from any kind of entitlement.

BLESSING OF THE GRAVES:

Monday 3rd November 11am Whitehill Cemetery.

An indulgence is "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due for sins already forgiven as far as their guilt is concerned, which the follower of Christ with the proper dispositions and under certain determined conditions acquires through the intervention of the Church which, as minister of the Redemption, authoritatively dispenses and applies the treasury of the satisfaction won by Christ and the saints.

To gain a Plenary Indulgence (only one per day), for a deceased loved one, the faithful must be in the state of grace and visit a cemetery. The following conditions must accompany the prescribed act:

1. have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
2. receive the Sacrament of Confession
3. receive the Holy Eucharist
4. and recite prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father (one Our Father and one Hail Mary is suggested as a minimum, but any other additional prayers may be added).

Family learning from the Catechism:

We have been looking at the word 'righteousness' in the Gospels recently, here is what the Catechism has to say:

1991 Justification is at the same time the acceptance of God's righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ. Righteousness (or "justice") here means the rectitude of divine love. With justification, faith, hope, and charity are poured into our hearts, and obedience to the divine will is granted us.

1992 Justification has been merited for us by the Passion of Christ who offered himself on the cross as a living victim, holy and pleasing to God, and whose blood has become the instrument of atonement for the sins of all men. Justification is conferred in Baptism, the sacrament of faith. It conforms us to the righteousness of God, who makes us inwardly just by the power of his mercy. Its purpose is the glory of God and of Christ, and the gift of eternal life.
