Word of preperation - Ken Taylor

KThen Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk." Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man's feet and ankles became strong. He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God. When all the people saw him walking and praising God, they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

While the man held on to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade.

Sermon introduction - Rev. Theresa Taylor

Scripture texts - Acts 3:1-11 NIV

One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer—at three in the afternoon. Now a man who was lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts. When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, “Look at us!” So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

Call to worship - Psalm 105

Please join in reading the bold print

We gather in worship to give thanks to God,

To call on the Holy name,

To sing praises to God,

To remember God's wonderful works.

We gather in worship because our hearts seek the Holy One.

We watch for signs of God's presence.

As our ancestors were led with the cloud by day
and fire by night,

God guides us with the power of the Holy Spirit.

As they received abundant food in the wilderness and flowing water in the desert,

Let us be open to the miracles of God's provision in our lives.

We remember the holy promises,

And so we gather to worship with thanksgiving.

Song - You Raise Me Up

Verse 1

When I am down and oh my soul's so weary
When troubles come and my heart burdened be.
Then I am still and wait here in the silence
Until You come and sit a while with me

Chorus

You raise me up so I can stand on mountains

You raise me up to walk on stormy seas
I am strong when I am on Your shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be

Verse 2

There is no life no life without its hunger
Each restless heart beats so imperfectly
But when You come and I am filled with wonder
Sometimes I think I glimpse eternity

Chorus 2x

You raise me up to more than I can be
