

John – Small Group Study Week Fifty-One

Verses for the week: John 18:19-40

Questions:

1. The “established religion” clearly hated Jesus, as evidenced by their desire to release a criminal, Barabbas, instead of Jesus. Does this still happen today?

Does the “established religion” of today hate “Jesus followers”, claiming they are false prophets or simply confused? How do we know if someone is a “Jesus follower” or a false prophet and/or simply confused?

2. When Jesus was before Pilate, he seemed to answer most of his questions without really answering them.

Why do you think Jesus did not just clearly say, “I am God, and I have come to save the world and if you don’t believe in Me, you will spend eternity in hell?”
