

Week Three

Great Events of the Bible: The Sacrifice of Isaac

Suggested Scripture: Genesis 22:1–19

Questions:

1. There is no recorded hesitation between Verse 2 where God commands and Verse 3 where Abraham acts. What would it take for you to act without hesitation if God commanded of you something of this significance?
2. In Verse 8, Abraham told Isaac, “God will provide a lamb for the burnt offering” even though he knew God had commanded he offer Isaac. Do you think he lied or do you think he knew God would find a way to save Isaac?
3. What was the reward for Abraham’s obedience?
4. Does God reward obedience today?

Quote of the week: The sense in which a Christian leaves it to God is that he puts all his trust in Christ: trusts that Christ will somehow share with him the perfect human obedience which He carried out from His birth to His crucifixion: that Christ will make the man more like Himself. CS Lewis
