How will this award help you achieve your future goals?

The Women’s Opportunity Award is one of our Soroptimist Club’s programs that helps women build a better life for themselves and their dependents. In 500 words or less tell us about your career goals, how your education/training supports your goals, and how those goals will help you build a better life for you and your family.

Note: We make every effort to protect your personal information, please help us by not mentioning specific names of individuals or specific names of places you’ve worked or lived in your answer. Use phrases like “my son/daughter/partner” or “my workplace”.
