

The Ruby Award is named after Ruby Lee Minor who, in 1922, was selected as Washington D.C.'s first Soroptimist Club President and in 1928 as the first National Soroptimist Club President.

This award honors non-Soroptimist women who are making extraordinary efforts on behalf of other women. This award gives the club and the community the opportunity to say, "thank you" and encourage others to explore ways to assist women.

The criteria for this award are:

- Has worked to improve the lives of women and girls
- Has had a significant impact on the lives of women and girls
- Inspires and encourages other women

Applications are due by January 15th and can be emailed to sieelrivervalley@outlook.com or mailed to:
