

Join us for the 2024 California Reading Association Spring Webinar Series!

Presenting the first of two webinars to get you inspired in the new year!

January 18, 2024 - 4p – 5p PST

Debra Crouch

Reading Is Comprehending

In their classroom lives, readers encounter a wide variety of texts: picture books and other narratives, content-driven nonfiction texts, leveled texts, and decodables. How does a teacher ensure all readers, especially those just beginning their reading journeys, understand that comprehending whatever they read is the point of reading? This session will explore the discussions and interactions teachers and students have that make comprehension more likely to occur.

February 8, 2024 - 4p – 5p PST

Dr. Marie Heath

SEL and Beyond: Tips for Asset Building Through Literacy

Explore the vital link between immigrant students' academic and linguistic success and their cultural background and funds of knowledge they bring to the classroom. This session offers cultural and social support tailored to the diverse needs of newcomer students through literature-based learning. Participants will engage in research-based strategies to explore how students can blend their home country's culture with that of their new country showcasing their unique strengths.
