MESSAGE FROM THE EAST

Greetings Brothers,

The Lodge had an excellent Ham and Oyster Supper on April 16th, both in terms of turnout and help. I want to thank all the Brothers and family members who either participated or patronized. Especially those who stayed late to help clean up.

We have a pretty busy schedule between now and when we go dark for the summer. So much so we will have a second communication in June to accommodate all the degree work we have planned. Of particular note on May 16th, when the Grand Line will come to our Lodge to confer a Third Degree. At the Grand Master's request, we will open at 6:00 PM, call off for refreshment and have a supper at 6:30. We will be called to labor at 7:30 by the Grand Master and enjoy a special event.

Our newly formed Mentoring Committee (Vic Kennedy – Chairman, also Andy Cowley and John Sasse) has been busy. I feel very confident their labors will be of great benefit to our Lodge – and I thank them for their efforts.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Rudolph Lukacovic, WM

FROM THE SECRETARY

Welcome brothers to the twenty-first Century. The Grand Lodge has created a user-friendly Website that allows interactive data mining for each of us on an individual basis. The process will set up an individual account for each member upon request, which will have your Masonic information, Lodge activities and Grand Lodge news. The URL to try it is <https://www.glm.d.org>, click on "member portal" and follow the instructions.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Stephen Quigley, Secy
