TOTE BAG & BACKPACK PROGRAM

THE HAPPY SHOES PROJECT inspires cancer patients to keep walking with encouragement, support, and inspiration. We distribute totes and backpacks that are filled with items to make cancer treatment more comfortable and positive.

The HAPPY SHOES totes are filled with a voucher for a pair of HAPPY SHOES, THE HAPPY SHOES book of Sandi's blog posts, CD with songs of hope, a throw to keep patients warm during treatment, Blue-Emu ointment for pain, and other goodies that will inspire cancer patients on their journey to put on their HAPPY SHOES and KEEP WALKING. The HAPPY SHOES backpacks are filled with a voucher for a pair of HAPPY SHOES, our HAPPY SHOES childrens illustrated book and companion coloring book, crayons, toys and other items that will inspire kids with cancer on their journey to put on their HAPPY SHOES and KEEP WALKING.

We also are reaching indigent and homeless cancer patients to meet their needs beyond the HAPPY SHOES totes and backpacks. We are grateful for every individual, corporate and grant partner. We are accountable to our board and audited monthly, semi-annually and annually to assure you that the vast majority of your donations go directly to cancer patients.

For more information and questions about the Tote Bag and Kids Backpack Program, please reach out to Keith, Misti, Parker, or Alanna at: info@happyshoes.org.

Inspiring Cancer Patients to KEEP WALKING!

In the face of a battle with colon cancer and lengthy treatments, Sandi Sammons shared her hope and light with others through her words. With her feet propped up and her tablet in hand, Sandi snapped a photo of her "happy shoes" and began writing her story. Sandi used her "Happy Shoes" and her words as a way to lift up her joy, frustrations, faith, and inspiration to the world until her passing in April 2017.

Today, Sandi's legacy continues through the work of her husband, Keith, son Parker and their wives Misti and Alanna and THE HAPPY SHOES PROJECT.
