Do what? How will you obey the teaching of this text?

*The "What? So what? Do what?" question structure is taken from Eddie Mosley's video Sermon-Based Studies, RightNow Media

Open In Prayer. Opening Questions: How would you summarize/paraphrase the message in your own words? What point/idea resonated most with you? Why? Did you disagree with something said, or what do you think should have been added or expanded on?

Opening Question: What stood out from Pastor Luke's message from this text?

How does Paul's statement about his conscience challenge us to evaluate our own integrity before God?

In what ways can we cultivate a good conscience that aligns with biblical teachings?

How does Paul's confrontation with the Sanhedrin inform our understanding of Christian leadership and the courage it requires?

What are some practical steps we can take to ensure our actions are accountable to God rather than seeking human approval?

How does God's protection over Paul in this chapter strengthen our trust in God's providence in our own lives?

How can we remain faithful and steadfast in our Christian walk when facing trials or opposition?
