Sermon Series: The Book of Acts

Week of August 24th, 2025
Sermon Text: Acts 18:1-17

Preparation for your Group:

As you listen to the sermon, consider these questions in preparation for your group meeting:

What? What is the main point of the text?

So what? How does this text apply to your life?

Do what? How will you obey the teaching of this text?

*The “What? So what? Do what?” question structure is taken from Eddie Mosley’s video Sermon-Based Studies, RightNow Media

Open In Prayer. Opening Questions: How would you summarize/paraphrase the message in your own words? What point/idea resonated most with you? Why? Did you disagree with something said, or what do you think should have been added or expanded on?

Opening Question: What stood out from Pastor Luke’s message from this text?

How do you see your job/school/life as a mission field? What are you doing to share the gospel with those in your sphere of influence?

Why is it important to evaluate if you have godly friends who encourage you in the faith? Would you say your friends encourage you to pursue Jesus or not? Explain.

What are some characteristics of good gospel friends? Why are these friendships a grace

What truths from Acts 18:9-10 can we hold onto during difficult times? How will those truths impact you this week in our lives?

Do you believe that God has people in our city who are not currently believers but will believe the gospel one day? If you answered yes, what keeps you from being faithful and sharing the gospel? What does Paul teach us in Romans 10:8-17 about the gospel and sharing?

What passages of Scripture comfort you in times of difficulty? Share them and consider memorizing a new passage this week.
